About VMM

Vivekananda Mission Mahavidyalaya, an eminent college of Purba Medinipur, affiliated to the Vidyasagar University, West Bengal was established on 9th August, 1968 under the magnificent enterprise of the monks, brahmacharies and philanthropists of the Vivekananda Mission Ashram to cater to the needs of the locals for higher education. With its humble beginning, the institution has much flourished under the untiring assiduity and immense competency of the former principals and is still continuing its journey under the skilful and sincere guidance of the present Principal Dr. Manabendra Sahu. At the very outset, the classes of the Mahavidyalaya were held at the two adjacent institutions set up by the Vivekananda Mission Ashram namely Rampur Vivekananda Mission Vidyamandir and Bajitpur Saradmoni Balika Vidyalaya. In 1970, the classes and the office of the Mahavidyalaya shifted to its own building.
